THE J.R. SHOW

A HOLLYWOOD STORY

THE J.R SHOW A HOLLYWOOD STORY

Is a dynamic and entertaining multimedia live show inspired by the American T.V variety shows from the 50's and 60's. And by the golden age of Hollywood.

The host, Juan Ricondo (Spain), sings live not only classic songs such as "Fly me to the moon" but also he sings his own recorded songs. And while he's singing he interacts with the video content projected on a big screen behind him.

To help Juan hosting the show he has with him on stage four gorgeous and talented dancers "The Reservoir Cats", choreographed by Nathan Clarke (London Olympics' 12, Take That, The Voice U.K) who is also the creative director and stylist of the show.

The audience is to expect high-end entertainment with powerful vocals, advanced modern choreography, breathtaking costumes and sophisticated video content designed by the directors Bogdan & Christian Toma (Bardem, Sony Music, Pablo Alborán).

Created, produced and performed by Juan Ricondo, "The J.R Show" is also a One Man Show.
